The drops come from the air.

Write a response to each of the children. What you think of each of their ideas and why?

Leila: ___________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________

Fern: ___________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________

Deneb: _________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________

There are drops of water on one of the glasses and the table is starting to get wet.

Drops of water leak through tiny holes in the glass.

The drops come from the air.

Water moved over the top of the glass and is dripping down the side.